Following months of Saturdays on the Campaign Trail the “ladies who’d leafleted, canvassed, stuffed envelopes and did much more” took a well deserved rest with a Traditional Afternoon Tea at the Holiday Inn (Gatwick Worth).

A huge thank you to Jan Tarrant who organised the event.

A great time was had by all. The tea was superb and included, assorted sandwiches, scones, jam and cream and a lovely assortment of pastries and cakes – with of course, bottomless tea pots with tea of our choice.

There was, of course, a raffle with prizes supplied by Beryl and Brenda - thanks to them.

Raquel and Sulu were fortunate enough to win them .
