

POUND HILL, WORTH AND MAIDENBOWER CONSERVATIVES invite you to join us on a wine tasting adventure to

The Tesco Wine Fair, London

on Sunday 30 October 2016
at Olympia, from 12:00 noon to 16:00pm

(To meet at Three Bridges station, train ticket price included, time to be advised *)

This is a chance to sample from approximately 300 different wines, many of which are not available in the stores and only through their dot.com site. These are arranged in about 40 - 50 stands, each vineyard or supplier having their own stand with 4 to 6 different wines to sample.

You get a show guide and a glass on entry, which you may keep.

There will also be workshops and you may attend one of these, such as "Lights of Spain", "Old World v New World" where a Tesco buyer will explain maybe 5 wines that you sample. In 2015 there were 23 workshops to choose from.

You may purchase some of the wines from Tesco (minimum half case per wine) at a discounted price either there or at home for the next 24 hours usually. Please note though there is no pressure to buy anything.

* Please note that as the workshops are "first come, first served" and tickets for these are only available when in the venue, the meet time is a strict one unfortunately. This is likely to be about 9:45am.

Tickets: £25 each, to include train to Olympia via Clapham

Limited number of tickets available so to secure your place please send cheque made payable Crawley Conservative Association to Valerie Knight, Crawley Conservative Association, Crawley Business Centre, Stephenson Way, Crawley, RH10 1TN.
